

FAIRBANKS CASA RESOURCE LIST

---

Emergency Services:

Fire, Police, Ambulance: 911
Fairbanks Police Dept.: 459-6500
Alaska State Troopers: 451-5100

Hospital: 452-8181
Careline: 452-4357

4H Club                      University Park Bldg-UAF, Rm 109                      474-2427
Wide variety of programs for children and teens with their parents.

Access Alaska                      526 Gaffney Road Suite 100                      479-7940
Access Alaska is a private, non-profit, consumer-controlled organization that provides independent living services to people who experience a disability.

Adolescent Substance Abuse Counseling Services (ASACS)
Ft. Wainwright Building 4055                      361-1370
Provides prevention services, assessments and treatments services for military dependants.

Adult Learning Program (ALPA)                      724 27th Ave. Suite 2                      452-6434
Provides educational assistance, information, and referrals. Services include accelerated educational services, English as a second language and computer skills.

Alano Club                      830 6th Ave.                      456-1604
Uses Alcohol Anonymous' 12 Step Program to aid the recovery of alcoholics. Teens are welcome to attend. Other AA meeting places can be found at this website: <http://www.fairbanksaa.org/schedule.html>

Alanon & Alateen                      456-6458
Support groups for adults and teens whose family members are alcoholics.

Alaska Center for Children and Adults                      1020 Barnette St.                      456-4003
ACCA provides diagnostic, therapeutic, educational and referral services for people with disabilities. Medical equipment is available for loan. Occupational, physical, and speech therapy services are offered on a sliding fee scale. Infant Learning Program provides services that help babies and toddlers with developmental delays or disabilities. FACES (Fetal Alcohol Community Evaluation & Services) offers a team of professionals to evaluate youth suspected of having FASD.

Alaska Center for Resource Families                      815 2nd. Ave.                      479-7307
(ACRF) provides training, referral services, individual support and information to those who are interested in becoming foster parents, adoptive parents, relative caretakers or guardians.

Alaska Child Support Enforcement Agency                      675 7th Ave. Suite J-2                      451-2830
Serves the children of Alaska by enforcing child support orders and advocating personal responsibility for family obligations.

Alaska Job Bank                      www.jobs.alaska.gov
Website that provides a list of jobs currently available in Alaska.

Alaska Job Center Network                      675 7th Ave.                      451-5967
Provides vocational training and assistance with job applications and interviews for adults and teens. Computers and job information are available in the resource room.

American Red Cross                      3501 Lathrop St. Unit #G                      456-5937
A wide variety of trainings are available including First Aid, CPR, Pet First Aid, Babysitting, and Disaster Classes. Training as a Red Cross Instructor begins at age 17.

FAIRBANKS CASA RESOURCE LIST

---

Big Brothers Big Sisters	610 Cushman St., Ste. 300	452-8110
Provides mentors for all children who need and want a caring adult role model through site-based and community-based programs.
Big Dipper Ice Arena	19th &amp; Lathrop	459-1104
Public ice skating facility.
Boys &amp; Girls Club	645 8th Ave.	457-5223
Provides a supervised facility for boys and girls ages 6 to 18 with activities and games. Promotes mutual respect, self-growth and skill building with the children. Hours are 2:30pm-6:30pm Monday through Friday.
Boy Scouts	1400 Gillam Way	452-1976
Boy scouts teaches values and ethics according to the scout oath and law. Provides healthy, fun activities for boys and girls in grades K-12 and their families; promotes community service, safety, and camping skills. Midnightsunbsa.org
Care Net Pregnancy Center of Tanana Valley	1402 Wilbur St.	455-8255
Provides information and support that include community resource referrals, post abortion support groups, and pregnancy tests. Fyndout Free Clinic provides ultrasounds to confirm pregnancy (up to 12 weeks) and a New Mom's Group.
Careline Crisis Intervention		452-4357
24-hour crisis intervention, suicide prevention hotline, information and referral services.
Chief Andrew Isaac Health Center (ANHS)		451-6682
Full service medical clinic for Alaskan Natives.
Child Care Assistance (TCC)	122 1st Ave.	452-8251 ex. 3365
Provides referrals and educational materials for parents in the Fairbanks North Star Borough seeking childcare. Program provides financial assistance for children eligible for enrollment in a federally recognized tribe.
Denali KidCare (Medicaid)		451-2850
State of Alaska program to provide health insurance coverage for children through age 18 and pregnant mothers who meet income guidelines. This office experiences high call volumes. Application is available online. The same application is used for Medicaid, food stamps, temporary assistance, and disability: Dhss.alaska.gov/dpa
Dept. of Labor and Workforce Development	675 7th Ave.	451-2871
Unemployment Insurance for eligible adults who are available for full time work. Office hours are from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm. Information online at my.alaska.gov .
Disability Law Center	1949 Gillam Way	456-1070
Provides protection and advocacy services to Alaskans who experience disabilities, through legal representation, education and strategic advocacy. Information online at dlcak.org .
Division of Public Assistance	675 7th Ave.	451-2850
Temporary assistance, Food Stamps, and Disability are nationwide, state, and federal programs that helps needy children who are deprived because at least one parent is absent, deceased, incapacitated, or unemployed. This office experiences high call volumes. Application is available online. The same application is used for Medicaid, food stamps, temporary assistance, and disability: Dhss.alaska.gov/dpa
Fairbanks Community Mental Health Center	1423 Peger Road	371-1300
Offers a variety of outpatient treatment services to assist adults, children, and families in problem solving and mental issues. Operates on a sliding-fee scale. Programs include, Non-Emergency Respite, Developmental Disabilities Services, and Emergency/Crisis Services.
Fairbanks Memorial Hospital	1650 Cowles St.	452-8181
Full service medical facility.
Fairbanks Native Association		452-1648

FAIRBANKS CASA RESOURCE LIST

---

- Family Centered Services of Alaska      1825 Marika Road      452-2109
A non-profit mental health organization that provides individualized services and respite care for families with children who experience severe emotional difficulties. Services include ATOP (Alternative to Out-of-state Placement). Other services offered are:
- Residential treatment facility      3101 Lathrop St.      459-4700
Residential psychiatric treatment facility for adolescents.
- Youth Education Support Services (YESS) 2785 College Rd.      452-2109
Youth Education Support Services (YESS) is a school for emotionally disturbed children.
- Therapeutic Family Homes      1825 Marika Road      452-2109
TFH program is designed to provide service to children in need of a safe and supportive place to live that are experiencing low to moderate behavioral health or mental health issues.
- Food Bank      725 26th Ave.      457-4273
Provides boxes of food for needy families in the Fairbanks community. Teenagers are welcome as volunteers.
- Girl Scouts      431 Old Steese Hwy., Suite 100      456-4782
Girl scouting builds girls of courage, confidence, and character who make the world a better place.
- Hamme Swimming Pool      931 Airport Way      459-1086
Recreational programs for seniors, adults, and children.
- Interior Alaska Center for Non-Violent Living      726 26th Ave., Ste 1      452-2293
Provides safe housing for women and children who experience domestic violence. Other services include counseling, referrals, legal advocacy, community presentations and support groups for women. An advocate is on duty 24 hours a day.
- Interior Community Health Center      1606 23rd Ave.      455-4567
Provides health care, including dental and integrated behavioral health, for the entire family on a sliding fee scale.
- Interior Regional Housing Authority (IRHA)      828 27th Ave.      452-8315
Provides low to moderate income Native American families the opportunity to purchase and own a home in the Fairbanks/North Pole area and outlying villages.
- Joel's Place      1890 Marika Road      452-2621
Provides a safe place for youth ages 10-20 to go after school and weekends. Open Thursday 7-9 pm, Friday 7-10 pm, Saturday 3-10pm, and Sunday 3-7pm. Los Ninos Café offers a food program that provides a free light supper or snack. An indoor skate park and BMX sessions are available (parental permission needed for children under 13).
- LEAP- Alternatives to Violence      600 University Ave.      452-2473
State approved alternatives to violence program for men and women.
- Literacy Council of Alaska      517 Gaffney Road      456-5013
Supports families by increasing literacy for parents of children. Offers adult literacy classes, family literacy nights, school age tutoring, and Forget-Me-Not Books, a used book store. Free books are provided for children attending Head Start.
- Low-income Housing (Section 8) 1442 22nd Ave.      452-7592
Provides rental assistance in the private sector for low-income families, seniors, handicapped and disabled individuals with specialty vouchers for youth aging out of foster care, veterans, parolees, and victims of domestic violence.
- Love INC      818 26th Ave.      452-5683
Provides help in meeting individual needs in the form of non-emergency, non-financial assistance.
- Mary Siah Pool      805 14th Ave.      459-1082

FAIRBANKS CASA RESOURCE LIST

---

Swimming programs and weight room equipment available.

Narcotics Anonymous

1-866-258-6329

Support group for people recovering from drug and alcohol addiction. Groups held at various times and locations in the North Star Borough.

National Child Abuse Hot line

1-800-422-4453

24-hour hot line that offers crisis counseling for adult survivors, abused children, parents experiencing stress and several other problems. Information and references.

Noel Wein Library

1215 Cowles

459-1020

Provides preschool story hour and other programs to promote literacy. Computers with internet access available for 15 minutes use or by a daily sign-up for 30 minutes to one hour. Computers for word processing only are also available. Books, videos and books on tape available for check out with a library card. Reference staff can help with research projects and aid in finding books.

Office of Children's Services

751 Old Richardson Hwy., Ste. 300

451-2650

Licenses foster homes and investigates potential child abuse and neglect. Information on adoption, guardianship and children seeking adoption. Independent Living Program provides support for foster children who age out of state care.

Presbyterian Hospitality House

209 Forty Mile

456-6445

Provides housing and treatment programs for youth unable to live at home or in foster care.

Planned Parenthood

1867 Airport way, Suite 160B

455-7285

Provides STD checks, annual pelvic exams for women, and reproductive health services including birth control and family planning services. Emergency birth control and contraception available.

Resource Center for Parents and Children

726 26th Ave. Ste 2

456-2866

Provides comprehensive support services for parent. Books and videos available for check-out. Support groups and trainings offered to the community throughout the year.

Family Services Program

456-2866

Reunification and preservation program for parents referred through OCS. Supervised visits and parenting classes provided.

Parenting Workshops

456-2866

Special topic workshops held throughout the year discussing a variety of topics from discipline to nurturing children.

Stevie's Place

374-2850

Child-friendly facility for medical evaluations and forensic interviews for children 0 – 18 years old who are alleged victims of sexual abuse. Children are referred by law enforcement, OCS, TFYS (Tribal Family and Youth Services), or by the medical community. Offers support and information on resources for the non-offending parent.

WIC Program (Women, Infants, and Children)

456-2866

A support program for women who are pregnant, who have newborns and/or are breastfeeding. The program is for women in the Fairbanks and rural villages.

Salvation Army

2222 South Cushman St.

452-5005

Clothing vouchers and assistance with rentals, furniture and food needs are available by Family Services at the above phone number.

Social Security Administration

101 12th Ave.

456-5390

Provides applications for a Social Security Card or for Supplemental Security Income for individuals who are 65 or older, blind or have a disability.

Stone Soup Cafe

507 Gaffney Road

456-8317

FAIRBANKS CASA RESOURCE LIST

---

Provides free breakfast and sack lunch Mon-Fri. to those in need. They also host Kids Café, a monthly gathering of families and volunteers to prep food for the Stone Soup Café.

Thread- Connecting Early Care and Education to AK      1908 Old Pioneer Way      479-2214

Provides referrals for childcare and educational materials for parents. Trainings offered for child care providers and parents.

Thralaska Birth to Five Head Start      1949 Gillam Way      452-4267

A comprehensive birth to five program for low-income families. Includes support services for families as well as educational opportunities for children

Wage and Hour Administration      675 7th Ave.      451-2886

Issues work permits for teens under the age of 18.

Well Child Services – Fairbanks Public Health Center      1025 W. Barnette      452-1776

Physical/developmental assessments, immunizations, and counseling for breastfeeding, nutrition, and other health concerns. Makes referrals in the community for other health-related issues.