

Strengths in Families Worksheet

Parent-Child Relationship

These items focus on the parent's relationship with the child. To accurately assess the parent-child bond, it is important to know the attachment behaviors of the parent's culture. How does this culture display empathy? What are appropriate verbal and nonverbal cues? For example, language is highly valued in some groups, and not in others. Eye contact between parent and child is expected by some but considered disrespectful by others.

- | Yes                      | No                       | Unknown                  |   |
|--------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 1. The parent shows empathy for the child.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 2. The parent responds appropriately to the child's verbal and nonverbal signals.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 3. The parent is able to put the child's needs ahead of his/her own.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 4. When they are together, the child shows comfort in the parent.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 5. The parent has raised the child for a significant period of time.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 6. In the past, the parent has met the child's basic physical and emotional needs.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 7. The parent accepts some responsibility for the problems that brought the child into care or to the attention of the authorities. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 8. The parent uses positive, nonviolent discipline.   |

Parental Support System

These items reflect the quality of the parent's relationships with his/her current support system. The ways in which support systems function vary depending on culture. Because of the value European American culture places on self-sufficiency and independence, parents are expected to make their own decisions, live independently, and use the family for emotional support. Other cultures, most notably Native American cultures, expect the total group, biologically related or not, to function collectively to resolve problems. Resolution of problems may lie in the hands of the elders in other ethnic groups.

- | Yes                      | No                       | Unknown                  |  |
|--------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 9. The parent has positive, significant relationships with other healthy adults (e.g., spouse, parents, friends, relatives). |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 10. The parent has a meaningful support system that can help him/her (e.g., church, job, counselor).                         |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | 11. Extended family is nearby and capable of providing support.  |

Past Support System

The next five items look at extended family and friendships that have been helpful in the past and can be tapped again. If the family system has demonstrated healthy coping abilities in the past consistent with their cultural norms, this may be a resource for the family in the present as well.

Yes	No	Unknown
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	12. Extended family history shows family members able to help appropriately when one member is not functioning well.
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	13. Relatives came forward to offer help when the child needed placement.
